

The GSA Committees

Student Affairs

The Student Affairs Committee shall deal with issues relating to academic, university, financial, social, and other affairs that directly affect graduate student's lives.

Programming

The Programming Committee is responsible for coordinating academic, professional, and social events.

Publication and Publicity

The Publication and Publicity Committee is responsible for the publication of the GSA's newsletter and the development of other publications including guides. The committee will promote the GSA and any GSA sponsored events.

Prospective and New Students

The Prospective and New Students Committee shall be the direct link between the GSA and prospective and new students. The committee shall work on the development and implementation of a new graduate student welcome and orientation.

Website

The Website Committee will ensure that the GSA's website is up-to-date. The committee will ensure that all GSA publications and other resources are available on the GSA's website.

North Dakota
State University

GSA

Graduate Student Association

www.ndsugsa.com

Contact Us

For more information be sure to check out our website at www.ndsugsa.com. You can also contact us via email at info@ndsugsa.com or by mailing us at

The Graduate Student Association
C/O The Graduate School
201 Old Main
Fargo, ND 58105

Your Association,
Your Voice

The Representative
Voice of Graduate
Students at NDSU

Your Association,
Your Voice

The Graduate Student Association Purpose

We charge ourselves with securing and protecting the rights of graduate students, being the representative voice of graduate students, developing partnerships across campus to improve graduate student life, and acting to improve the quality of education and social experiences for graduate students at NDSU.

About the GSA

All graduate students enrolled at NDSU are members of the association and are granted voting rights in all business relating to the association.

All graduate students are eligible to become part of the executive committee which consists of a President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Executive Council, and Committee Chairs.

The GSA has established the following committees:

- Student Affairs
- Programming
- Publication and Publicity
- Prospective and New Students
- Website

Everyone is encouraged to get involved.

What we do

The GSA is multifaceted in what we do at NDSU. First and foremost we are the representative voice of graduate students meaning that we listen to suggestions and concerns and work with people on campus to work towards a solution.

Additionally, we publish a newsletter and other useful documents to improve graduate life at NDSU.

The GSA also develops programs and events that enhance the academic and social experiences of graduate students at NDSU.

In short we work to improve graduate life at NDSU.

Current Projects

The GSA is working on many projects, some of them include:

- Graduate Student Newsletter
- NDSU Guides
- Improved graduate resources
- Academic and social events
- Establishing a "graduate community"

Becoming a part of the GSA

Every enrolled NDSU Graduate Student is already a member of the GSA, but you can get more involved in your association.

You can start by sharing your opinions on various topics either with other members of the GSA or on our website at www.ndsugsa.com.

You can read our newsletter or write for it, let us know what you would like improved at NDSU, or help us develop guides to assist graduate students with life and policies at NDSU.

Attend our meetings and events, join a committee, help us establish a more cohesive graduate community.

How about taking on your own project?

It is your association, be a part of it!

ndsugsa.com